This is a self contained contemporary office building fitted to a high specification and offering open footplate office space on both floors, ideal for partitioning as required. Some existing partitioning remains in situ from the previous occupants but is easily removed.

The space is attractively appointed and carpeted throughout and has recently been redecorated and is complete with a heating/cooling air conditioning system a raised floor cabling system, providing maximum flexibility for computer/power/telecommunication cabling with suspended ceilings inset with a contemporary lighting system.

Each floor has WC/wash facilities and are therefore capable of independent occupation and both are accessed from a ground floor lobby.

The ground floor space has an existing well fitted kitchen, complete with appliances.

This location is approximately ten minutes drive from Tamworth town centre and a similar time distance from the intersection of the A5 trunk road and the M42 motorway at Junction 10 linking to the national principle road system.

Tamworth has two main line railway stations and Birmingham airport is approximately 20 minutes drive in clear traffic and East Midlands airport is approximately 30 minutes drive.
